

MEREWYN SCAFE

HR Director

How long have you been with Sheffcare?

14 years.

How did you get to this job?

I was working in HR in a hotel, it was the recession and they were making redundancies, I saw a job as HR Officer with Sheffcare advertised. When I started I was working in a team of at John Street, there were 7 people working in HR and training, we had 15 homes at that time. I was promoted to HR manager, and then HR Director and for years it was just me until we recruited support for recruitment and now we have Julie and Chloe working with me.

What do you like most about the job?

Being able to make a difference to people and getting out and meeting people

What's the hardest bit of the job?

Dealing with disciplinaries

What do you like doing outside work?

Spending time outdoors, walking the dogs,

Where do you like to go on holiday?

Cornwall, Florida

What's your favourite food?

Italian

What do like to watch on tv?

I only watch catch up and YouTube, or streaming, but like Hijack, and The Bear

What is something surprising about you or something that people wouldn't know?

I worked in Disneyland Paris, and sold hotdogs dressed as a baseball player, at that time I spoke French fluently, but I've forgotten most of it now.

What are you proud of?

Helping shape the future of Sheffcare
